

VP of Membership – Christy Germanis

Christy is the Director of Communications and Development at YWCA McLean County. While working at a non-profit brings special challenges, Christy thrives on the hustle and bustle and loves to know she's making a difference in the lives of many on a daily basis.

Christy is a native of McLean County and has a professional background that ranges from digital printing and editing a sports magazine, to health care marketing and air show public relations. She loves variety and learning about new industries.

Christy is a self-admitted Netflix junkie, Star Wars nerd, chocolate lover, and Mountain Dew addict. She adores her writer husband, Alex, and loves to visit the theatre and travel the country with him.
