

Scholarship Chair & Fall Workshop Chair – Kris Harding

Kris is the Director of Constituent Relations in the College of Education at Illinois State University. Kris is responsible for managing communication, outreach and events to advance the mission and vision of the College.

Kris' career at Illinois State spans nearly 20 years holding positions in University College Academic Advisement and in the Office of Admissions. Before joining the College of Education, served on the leadership team as an Associate Director of Admissions. She managed outreach and communication for new student recruitment. Kris holds an M.S. from the department of Educational Administration and Foundations at Illinois State University and a Bachelor of Science in Psychology and Sociology from Elmhurst College.

Kris is a wife, mother of two, and chocolate lover.