

Stephanie is a Director for Alumni Engagement at Illinois State University. Stephanie's role focuses on executing Illinois State University's longest standing tradition, Homecoming along with being the Alumni Engagement's liaison for reunions, civic engagement, and advocacy. Stephanie also instructs a public speaking course and a freshman transition course at ISU. Stephanie's background includes nonprofit event planning, grant writing and fundraising with the American Cancer Society, the YMCA and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. She holds a M.S. in Communication and a Bachelor of Arts in Communication, both from Illinois State University. Stephanie and her husband, Jacob met at ISU and have a wonderful daughter, Joli.